VOLUME CVI.---NO. 64. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 16, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

A rich man died the other day. He died in the very midsummer of life, and he left his family $1,000,000. The doctor's certificate showed that death resulted from typhoid fever. The doctor himself said to a friend: "That man was a suicide. He had a splendid constitution. I could have pulled him through if his stomach had been sound. But he ruined his stomach by hasty meals, snatched in intervals of business and by neglect of symptoms which have been warning him a year past, that his stomach was failing in its duties."

The symptoms of a disordered stomach are, among others, variable appetite, sour risings, heartburn, undue fullness after eating, dull headache, dingy complexion, discolored eye, fluctuations in physical strength, nervousness, sleeplessness despondency. No person will have all these symptoms at once.

The restoration of the stomach to sound health, begins with the first dose of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The cure progresses until the functions of the stomach are in healthy operation. Then the nerves are quiet and strong, the appetite healthful, the sleep restful, the eye bright, the complexion clear.

"Please accept my thanks for the benefit which my child received from your medicine," writes Mrs. W. A. Morgan, of Silica, Mo. "He had been troubled for nearly a year with liver complaint, indigestion and constipation. I gave him your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and they did him great good. I gave him the 'Discovery' about eight months, and several vials of the 'Pellets.' He seems to be perfectly well now."

If you want a cure accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets

These ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, have been much imitated but never equaled. They're made of purely vegetable, concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and plants. They speedily relieve and cure foul, torpid and deranged Stomachs, Livers and Bowels and their attendant distressful ailments. One or two a laxative, three or four a cathartic.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

PREPARING FOR 1908.

Mr. W. J. Bryan announced in Lincoln, Neb., last night his plan of recapturing the democratic national organization. A statement from him says:

"I have been in receipt of a multitude of letters since the election urging organization for the campaign of 1908. The rank and file of the party are ready to begin the fight. They only wait a plan of co-operation. This plan has been under consideration for some weeks, and is herewith submitted. Let each democrat pledge himself to attend all of the primaries of his party to be held between now and the next democratic national convention, unless unavoidably prevented, and to use his influence to secure a clear, honest, and straightforward declaration of the party's position on every question upon which the voters of the party desire to speak.

"This plan does not involve the writing of a platform in advance of the primaries. It does not rest upon the paramount importance of any one issue. It recognizes the right of the democratic voters to control the policy of the democratic party and to determine its position upon public questions. It also recognizes the importance of honesty and sincerity in politics.

"The proposition will appeal to all who believe in the rule of the people, to all who are willing that the majority shall govern in party management and in the nation. It does not mean that those who exert themselves to secure a good platform will be bound to support a bad platform; that is a question which each must determine for himself. But it does mean that the democratic platform shall give voice to the prevailing sentiment of the democratic party, and that the party shall take the country into its confidence.

"The members of this organization while pledged to but one thing; namely, attendance upon the primaries, are urged to co-operate among themselves for the support of every effort put forth to eliminate corruption in politics.

"No cause can properly prosper permanently that does not appeal to the moral sense of the country and the moral sense of the country is now being awakened to the choice of purifying politics."

A blank form pledge is printed, and the newspapers are asked to reproduce it. Mr. Bryan will keep the roll.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shafler, a brakeman of Denison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, MAR. 16, 1905.

CONGRESSMAN HULL, of Iowa, chairman of the House committee on military affairs, is attempting to scare Congress into an unnecessary and lavish expenditure of the people's money in the construction of additional men-of-war. His bogyman is a dream that Japan will soon demand the Philippine Islands, and should this country refuse to sell them to the Mikado Japan will proceed to war for their possession. It is hard to see how any person of moderate intelligence can fail to see through this veil. Many things could be said to controvert such a hallucination, but a few only will be necessary for people not disposed to panic or whose minds do not dwell on imaginary events of the future. In the first place it must be apparent to all that Japan is being severely drained by the war she is waging on Russia, and should the Mikado emerge triumphant over the Muscovite, his country will not for many years be in a condition to cross swords with any other nation. It will take a quarter of a century for Japan to recuperate from the conflict. Besides all this, there are many reasons why Japan can have no serious objection to the United States holding the Philippine Islands—certainly none so serious as to actuate her to declare war. It is far more to her interests to oust England from Hong Kong and Wei-hi-wei and break up foreign domination in Shanghai; or to expel the French from Cochin China and Germany from Chinese ports which she has seized. There can be no doubt that Japan aspires to be the head of the Mongolian race, and should the present unhappy conflict close advantageously to that country, and she be allowed to hold Manchuria and exercise a suzerainty over Korea, Japan will be in a condition to carry out her dream and her influence will eventually extend over the celestial empire. Tho first job of housecleaning should she expel the Russians from Manchuria, will be the ridding of China of the French, English and Germans. The United States in the possession of the Philippine Islands may possibly in the remote future prove to be an eyesore to Japan. But Russia remains to be vanguished first, and, like the maid in the fable, Japan may stumble and all her visions of empire vanish.

IT WAS once said by a distinguished republican, Green B. Raum, that "a modern politician could not afford to be consistent." Indeed, on every hand, at all times, and most everywhere, fresh evidences are given of the declaration that "nothing is so inconsistent as consistency." The debates in Council on Tuesday night fully illustrate the force of the words last quoted. While the Common Council was debating a report from the street and finance committees to commence a sewer which will empty into Hooff's run, the Board of Aldermen was discussing the proposed personnel of a committee to visit Washington city for the purpose of protesting against the dumping or emptying of the Washington sewage in the Potomac river two miles above Alexandria. In the Common Council some of the members discussed with much spirit the proposition to empty the sewage of a large area of the city in a very shallow run, perhaps in places not ten feet wide, and the committees reporting the part appropriation for a $35,000 sewer were warned that persons living near the run had some rights and would assert them. Alexandrians will present a sorry plight protesting against the Washington sewage being emptied a mile or so above our city, and insisting upon sweeping our own dirt in front of our neighbor's door. If our financial condition, present and prospective, is so healthy that we can build a $35,000 sewer to carry off storm water from a section which, at some future time, is to develop into a magic city, well and good, but if not, then let us wait and spend the money on our streets, when the present taxpayers can get the benefits. Sewers are all right, but not the only desideratum.

THE PRESIDENT in appointing Mr. P. V. DeGraw Fourth Assistant Postmaster General made no mistake. He is eminently qualified for the duties of the position and will fulfill them efficiently and faithfully. In every line of duty in which he has been cast Mr. DeGraw has been found equal to all requirements, and those who have from time to time been associated with him have ever recognized his ability, courtesy and obliging nature. His long connection with the Associated Press and the United Press brought him in touch with newspaper men, as well as with many prominent persons, with all of whom he was justly popular. The selection of such men by the President is to be commended.

PROF. CHITTENDEN, of the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale, has reached the conclusion that strength tests show that men who cut down their diet to about one-third the ordinary amount have increased in strength from 50 to 100 per cent. Dr. Chittenden advises not drinking milk at the same time meat is taken, because the milk tends to collect into hard indigestible masses when brought into contact with meat. He also said that tough round steak was fully as nutritious as tender meat. He recommended the students to follow the Japanese, who eat to live and do not make dinners their highest pleasure.

DR. BERNAYS, of St. Louis, writing in the Medical News, says that in many of the so-called operations for appendicitis the appendix is found to be quite normal, or only showing slight inflammation, and that in all such cases the only good is the mental relief of the patient. He admits to feeling embarrassed when he extracts one of these normal organs, and says that in one hospital six or eight cases occurred in a single day. Now is there any wonder at sensible people growing skeptical concerning operations for appendicitis?

IT is stated that Congressmen Brownlow, of Tennessee, Slemp, of Virginia, and Edwards of Kentucky, will present a bill in the next Congress for the creation of a new State out of east Tennessee, southeastern Kentucky and southwest Virginia. Knoxville would probably be the capital. Is this Col. Slemp's idea of aiding Virginia by lopping off more of her territory?

DAFFODILS "that take the winds of March with beauty" are a little behind the schedule this season, but the shamrocks will be on time tomorrow.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., March 16.

Arrangements are complete for the President's one-day trip to New York tomorrow. An early start will be made, his special train leaving at about 7 a. m., in order that he may reach the metropolis in time to attend the wedding of his cousin, Miss Eleanor Roosevelt, which is set for 3 p. m. The ceremony will be a quiet home affair, none but the family relatives and a few personal friends having been invited. After the wedding President Roosevelt will visit his relatives until it is time for him to go to Delmonico's, where he is to be the guest and speaker of honor at the banquet of Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. As soon as the dinner is over the President will hurry to catch the midnight train for the capital. The fact that President Roosevelt is to make a speech at the St. Patrick's banquet is probably responsible for the rumor which has gained some currency to the effect that he has recently taken up the study of Gælic and was preparing to spring a surprise at the dinner in the shape of an original translation of the old Sagas.

Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, until lately Senator from Connecticut, is lying dangerously ill at his Washington home on N street, and is hardly expected to live through the day. He has been in a greatly debilitated condition for several months past owing to old age and general breaking down of his system. General Hawley's term in the Senate ended on March 4. Congress in the last days of the session authorized the President to appoint him a brigadier general and place him on the retired list of the army.

The War Department today received a message from Gen. Williams at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., to the effect that Lieut. F. M. Boone, 19th infantry, who was shot by his guards while attempting to escape, will probably not recover. Lieut. Boone had been sentenced by courtmartial to dismissal from the army and a year's imprisonment for desertion.

At this morning's session of the Mothers Congress officers were elected for the ensuing term with Mrs. Frederick Schoff, Philadelphia, as president, (re-elected). An effort was made to elect Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt honorary vice president, but action on this was deferred as it would require a change in the constitution of the organization.

"Bill" Parker, of Buffalo, the colored man, who claims credit for having first knocked down and then captured the assassin of McKinley at the Buffalo Exposition, is in the city seeking a federal job.

Postmaster General Cortelyou, announced this morning that he expected to retire from the chairmanship of the republican national committee in a few days. His decision to turn the part, management over to other hands is unalterable. He had hoped to make public the name of the acting chairman before this but duties in connection with the closing up of inauguration ceremony affairs have made speedier retirement impossible.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 16.

SENATE.

The Senate was in open session for only seven minutes this morning. During that time Senator Teller called up the resolution which he offered yesterday asking the Secretary of State to furnish to the Senate copies of all instructions sent to Commander Dillinghrm or Minister Dawson relating to Dominican affairs. He asked whether the chairman of the foreign relations committee was ready to have it considered.

Senator Cullom suggested that it go over a day. In response to the suggestion from Senator Teller, that the information called for should be available to the Senate before the treaty was acted upon, Mr. Cullom said that the Colorado Senator would have an opportunity to secure action on his resolution tomorrow.

The resolution accordingly went over with the understanding that it should be taken up and disposed of at tomorrow's session.

The Senate then closed the doors for the consideration of the Santo Domingo treaty.

So far as today's prospects at this session are concerned the Senate might as well adjourn now. It is understood, however, that the President has requested that the Senators remain for at least another day so that he may have an opportunity to consider several nominations which he wishes to send in before adjournment. Accordingly the Senate will continue discussing the treaty, but in a purely perfunctory manner until tomorrow, when adjournment will probably be taken

News of the Day.

The appointment of Dr. W. A. Applegate as chief surgeon of the Southern Railway, with headquarters at Chattanooga, Tenn., has been announced.

The report of the committee of the French Chamber of Deputies on the bill providing for the separation of church and State was yesterday distributed among the deputies.

Fire yesterday destroyed the large bank barn and other buildings on the farm of State Fish Commissioner George F. Brooke, near Sandy Spring, Md., and the barn of George M. Dorrance, in the same vicinity.

Advices from Paris are that the French cable in Venezuela has not been cut, but Castro's excuse for wishing to annul the concession is termed specious and the French government has been appealed to.

The Missouri Senate has passed the House bill which makes pool selling and bookmaking on horse races illegal. The bill was amended so as to make such acts misdemeanors instead of felonies. This will probably close all the race tracks in Missouri.

Direct, 2:05½, formerly the champion pacing stallion and sire of many grand circuit winners, dropped dead of rupture of the heart, at East View Farm, James Butler's stock farm, in New York, yesterday. He was valued at about $50,000.

In New York yesterday Alice Webb Duke began a separation suit against Brodie L. Duke, her millionaire husband. She alleges abandonment and nonsupport, and says her husband is living under an assumed name at the Hotel Marlborough, Asbury Park.

The effort yesterday to break the deadlock in Missouri for senator failed. Speaker Hill announced that he was willing to vote for a democrat, rather than see the legislature adjourn without electing a senator. This announcement induced a member to demand the speaker's resignation.

At Brunswick, N. J., yesterday J. F. Cordova, the former pastor of a Methodist church in South River, and who on Tuesday was convicted of abandoning his wife and children, was found guilty of assault and battery upon his wife. Mrs. Cordova testified against her husband, declaring that in April last they got into a quarrel over a letter which he had received from Julia Bowne, with whom he twice eloped and that Cordova bombarded her with crockery.

THE WAR.

The Japanese have evidently begun their flanking tactics again. A column coming from some quarter that puzzled the Russians attacked General Mistchenko's forces on the Russians' right.

The newspaper correspondents have been starved out of Tie Pass, the censor has removed to Santenpu and the next objective point of the Russians seems to be Harbin.

A Russian journalist wires that with the Japanese occupation of Mukden, Russia's prestige with the Chinese has been destroyed.

A correspondent attributes the Russian defeats to the babbling of young officers, who allow advance information about important military movements to leak out, and to want of accurate knowledge of the country in which the armies are operating.

The reluctance of the French financiers to conclude the negotiations for the Russian loan is attributed to the influence of the French government, which is said to be inspired by the desire to force Russia to look favorably on peace proposals.

The Czar is definitely reported to have approved the decision of the council of war to send Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch to replace General Kuropatkin.

General Kuropatkin is said to have missed a good opportunity in failing to utilize the Sans river, which would have afforded a strong line of defense.

Gov. Frazier to be Senator.

Gov. James B. Frazier yesterday afternoon was nominated for United States Senator by the democratic caucus of the Tennessee legislature, at Nashville. The vote was by acclamation, no other name being presented to the caucus. When that body convened it was supposed the contest was to be a three-cornered one, friends of former Govs. Benton McMillin and Robt. L. Taylor having been actively at work in their interests. A test vote came, however, in an effort to adjourn the caucus until Monday next. The motion was defeated 36, to 64, and it was apparent that the Frazier forces were in the ascendency.

Friends announced the withdrawal of ex-Governor Taylor and of Mr. McMillin from the race, and Governor Frazier's election is assured, as the legislature is very largely democratic. He will succeed the late Senator William B. Bate, who was himself elected by the present legislature, and, therefore, practically has a senatoral term before him. Tuesday, March 21, is the day set for the formal election by the joint assembly.

Governor Frazier will be succeeded in the gubernatorial chair by John I. Cox, present Speaker of the State Senate.

Plans Massacre of Jews.

Jews in southern Russia, according to a cable message received yesterday morning by the New York Bund, are threatened with another series of massacres similar to those which occurred at Kishenef. It is said that the Russian govment, appreciating the important factor the Jews are in present domestic dificulties in Russia, is investigating, and, in fact, planning a campaign of such riots so as to weaken the revolutionary movement, which, though quiet on the surface, is growing more and more dangerous every day. The message received by the New York Bund came from southern Russia by underground methods to Geneva, Switzerland, whence it was sent to New York. The dispatch reads as follows:

"The police in Russia are organizing and arming the populace for a systematic series of attacks upon Jews. Bands of vagabonds, gendarmes, policemen, spies and soldiers, all in citizen's clothes, masquerading as Russian workmen and peasants are being sent out to assault the Jewish population. At Kishenef police captains are heading bands of agitators spreading anti-Semitic literature, calling upon the christian population to slaughter."

Virginia News.

The Jefferson Hotel, at Richmond, is to be rebuilt and restored.

Miss Grace Darling Yerby, of Fredericksburg, and Mr. Frank Epes, of Blackstone, were married yesterday afternoon at the rectory of St. John's Episcopal Church, Petersburg.

Prof. J. M. Brereton, of Staunton, who for 11 years has been the leader of the Stonewall Brigade Band, has resigned. He was at one time leader of the band of the Richmond Blues.

Charles W. Stevens, son of J. J. Stevens, and Miss Kate Walters Wenner, daughter of A. A. Wenner, of Lovettsville, were married yesterday evening at the Reformed church, at Lovettsville.

Mr. B. A. Bell, of Stafford county, warden for Aquia district, died suddenly Tuesday night of heart trouble, aged 65 years. He had attended court during the day and was interested in a case he was prosecuting for a violation of the game law.

Mr. W. H. Boax, of Albemarle, announces that he will not be a candidate for the nomination for State Treasurer at the coming primary. Mr. Boax will not go back to the House of Delegates, but will retire from public life, at least, for the present.

At the Methodist Church at Kernstown last night Miss Maggie H. Triplett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Triplett, was married to Mr. Wilbur Q. Tidler, of the internal revenue service. An old-time Virginia dinner and reception followed the wedding.

Joseph Blackwell died at his home, near Warrenton Tuesday night, after a protracted illness. He is survived by his widow and several children. Mr. Blackwell was a prominent member of the Mosby Rangers, and served with distinction throughout the civil war.

It is understood that Hon J. Taylor Ellyson, who has just entered the race for the lieutenant-governorship, will not resign the chairmanship of the State democratic committee. He has been advised by party men of experience that there is no reason whatever for his retirement.

Messrs. Davis and Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant, this week, to citizens of this State of the following patents: Neal A. Butler, of Hampton, for a fertilizer distributer; Hartwell F. Coke, of Norfolk, two labels for cigars; Phil G. Kelley, of Richmond, a label for whisky; R. A. Patterson Tobacco Co., of Richmond, a print for tobacco.

Senator Martin introduced to the President yesterday a delegation from the Young Men's Christian Association of Richmond, which extended an invitation to him to visit and address the Richmond association when he should make his promised visit to Richmond. The President promised to address the association at the time of his Richmond visit, but he could not indicate definitely when he should be able to make the visit.

Japanese Covet the Philippines.

Congressman J. A. T. Hull, of Des Moines, Iowa, chairman of the House committee on military affairs, in a sensational interview, declares that the Japanese are even now planning to insist on possession of the Philippines as soon as convenient after the conclusion of their war with Russia.

"I know whereof I speak," said Congressman Hull. "There is every reason to fear that we will be facing just this situation sooner than any of us are willing to realize. The Japanese feel that they could handle the Philippines better than any other nation; they need the commerce and the business opportunities of the islands, and they feel certain now of their ability to defeat any western nation. They are getting ready to enforce a policy of Asia for Asiatics, and that means expulsion of the United States just as soon as they are free in Manchuria. The situation is regarded at Washington as menacing; not immediately so, perhaps, but certain to develop dangerous phases as soon as the present war is over. The United States will have to sell the islands or fight to keep them. If we have to fight it will be at a tremendous disadvantage owing to our distance. We will be in the same situation that Russia is, and the only thing that will save us from defeat will be to possess a navy that Japan will not dare to fight. For this reason I feel that we cannot afford to stop naval development, but rather should accept a plan of expansion based on keeping a greater force in the Pacific than Japan can maintain."

Unearthing Babylonian City

Prof. Robert Francis Harper, of the University of Chicago, who is director of the expedition of the oriental exploration fund, now in Assyria, has received a telegram announcing that the work of excavating the ruins of Bismya, which was suspended last autumn, is to be resumed. The dispatch was from Victor Persons, engineer in charge, and stated that the sender started for Bismya from Bagdad on March 9. The excavation was begun in December, 1903, and continued until several months ago, when it was abandoned by order of the Turkish government. The permission to resume work is the result of Dr. Harper's recent trip to Contantinople. Bismya, which has been identified as the Adab of ancient inscriptions, is one of the most ancient of Babylonion cities, and flourished possibly as early as 4,000 or 5,000 B. C. No history of the place ever has been discovered, and tradition does not record the name of its ruling dynasty. The site of the excavation is between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers, 90 miles southeast of Bagdad. It is a large ruin, second in size only to Nippur, Warka, and possibly Babylon. The length of the entire mound under which the ruins are buried, including a small, low hill 200 metres to the northwest, is 1,695 metres, and the width 840 metres.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

JAPANESE AT TIELING.

Tie Pass Suddenly Evacuated by General Kuropatkin.

London, March 16.—It is reported here that the Japanese have occupied Tieling.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—It is reported that Tie Pass has been hastily evacuated by General Kuropatkin's army.

London, March 16.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, has made public the following statement: "Our advanced troops are pressing against the enemy everywhere. We occupied Tieling at 12:20 a. m. Thursday."

London, March 16.—A statement given out by Baron Hayashi, Japanese minister here, says: "Our detachment occupied Shingking on March 13."

St. Petersburg, March 16.—The following dispatch has been received from General Kuropatkin: "Our troops are passing through Tieling in good order on my route to the north. Our troops have been recognized and drawn up in readiness for further fighting."

Paris, March 16.—Developments from the seat of war which might result in the possible transfer of Russian territory to the Japanese are being anxiously watched. In political circles it is considered that a grave international crisis impends as well as internal affairs of importance.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—The rapid occupation of Tieling by the Japanese has caused the greatest alarm for General Kuropatkin's entire force. It was generally believed that the Russians could hold the Japanese at bay there for several days, when, after inflicting a great deal of slaughter, the army could retire successfully northward. The apparent ease with which the Japanese have taken Tieling has dissipated all the rejoicing which was caused yesterday by General Kuropatkins optimistic dispatches.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—The council of war has decided that General Gripenberg's action during the fighting on the Shahke river was perfectly justifiable. General Gripenburg was commander of the second Manchurian army. He was accused by General Kuropatkin of exceeding his orders in pushing beyond Sandepu and becoming involved in an engagement with the Japanese in which the Russians lost heavily. General Gripenberg asserted that he had not violated orders and that his loss was due to the failure of General Kuropatkin to support him in the engagement. General Gripenberg's recall was demanded, by Kuropatkin, and he returned to St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—It is announced that the first conference at the office of the Minister of the Interior in regard to the calling of a representative assembly will be held on March 29. The holding of a conference on this subject is in line with the policy announced by the Czar in his rescript of two weeks ago.

Miss Bowne Changes Her Mind.

New Brunswick, N. J., March 16.—J. F. Cordova, the eloping pastor who is in jail here awaiting sentence, having been convicted on the charge of abandoning his family and of having assaulted his wife, broke down this morning, when he learned that Julia Bowne, with whom he twice eloped, had left the jail last night. On learning of her departure, Cordove exclaimed: "What, my Julia gone. What will I do without her." Then he broke down and wept for an hour. Miss Bowne, who was held as a witness against Cordova, on the abandonment charge, left the jail last night and went to the home of her aunt, Mrs. George Seigert, in this city. Later she may go to the home of her father in South River. Mr. Bowne several times since her incarceration offered to furnish the necessary bail, but she refused, saying that she preferred to remain in jail so as to be near her lover. Last night, however, she changed her mind, and upon her father depositing $500 bail, she left the prison. Miss Bowne, after leaving prion, said: "I will be patient, and some day I hope we can be married. If he should procure a divorce from Mrs. Cordova we would be married at the first possible moment. Prison bars cannot shut out such a love as mine and I would wait twenty years for him."

Dissension in a Church.

Hammonton, N. J., March 16.—Dissension is rife in the First Methodist Episcopal Church here. The storm centre is Rev. George R. Middleton, the pastor. The controversy reached its climax, when Mrs. L. B. Joslyn, was dismissed from the church on grave charges, of which she says she is innocent. Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn, say that their dismissal was made without giving her the benefit of the customary, and, according to the church law, imperative hearing which should have been accorded her. Rev. Mr. Middletown, who has proclaimed himself a "sactified man," is also said to to have severely rebuked some of the women of his congregation for devoting an occasional evening to the Philadelphia theatres.

Died From His Injures.

Westchester, Pa., Mar. 16.—Dominik Delucca, ten year old brother of Marie Delucca, who was murdered by an unknown man, in the village of Howellsville, Chester county, died at six o'clock this morning in the Chester county hospital. The lad was injured while endeavoring to defend his sister from the criminial assault upon her. He was beaten, kicked, and choked into insensibility by the miscreant, who committed the dastardly outrage on his four year old sister. Ricardo Forte is now under arrest on suspicion of being the boy's murder. The boy's last words were: "Mother told me not to tell. If I did I would be murdered."

Czar Collapsing.

Berlin, March 16.—An article in the Schlesiche Zeitung says that the Czar is collapsing under the severe mental strain on him. He suffers from prolonged acute headaches. At intervals he is apathetic, when he is in different to either the victory or defeat of his armies. Recently when Prince Khilkoff, the minister of public works and railways, was making a report as to the capacity of the Tran-Siberian railroad the Czar exclaimed. "Do not worry me with that uninteresting subject."

Prisoners to be Killed.

Vienna, March 16.—The Zeitung says that it has learned from an authentic source that the porte has given secret orders to commanders in the Macedonian zones not to make prisoners of the Bulgarian insurrectionists, who may be wounded or otherwise fall into their hands, but to kill them, as Turkey is tired of imprisoning them only to have them released later under an amnesty.

Double Hanging.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., March 16.—Peter Dancy and Edward Austin, both negroes, were hanged on the same scaffold here this morning. Dancy murdered a woman of his race and Austin criminally assaulted a small negro girl.

Both men died courageously. Dancy was accompanied to the scaffold by colored Baptist ministers, and Austin by a white Catholic priest. The last act of the two men was to press their menacled hands together, on the gallows in a friendly clasp a minute before the drop fell. The hanging was thoroughly successful. Before the men were launched into eternity, a hymn was sung on the scaffold by the Baptist contingent. Then the priest, Father Hannegan said a prayer in Latin. Dancy, before the execution, said to friends, "Let this be a lesson to you."

Kuropatkin Superseded.

Berlin, March, 16.—The Tageblatt prints a report to the effect that the Czar has ordered General Kuropatkin to transfer the command of the Russian armies to General Linievitch, as temporary commander in chief, pending the arrival of Grand Duke Nicolaivitch in the field.

Lieut. Gen. Linievitch, to whom it is reported Gen. Kuropatkin has been ordered to transfer the temporary command of the Russian armies in Manchuria, was selected to take charge of the new army which Russia decided to send out late in the fall. He is regarded as one of Russia best commanders.

The Russian Loan.

London, March 16.—The sensational reports heard that Russia will not be able to float a new loan, seem to emanate from irresponsible sources, to which the English newspapers have been giving undue prominence on account of their strong anti-Russian sentiment. The view which is accepted in imparial circles is that French financiers are seizing the opportunity of Russia's difficulties to obtain the highest terms possible. The question now is whether Russia will consider it more economical to accept the high French terms or to raise an internal loan. The stories about Russia's approaching bankruptcy, which originated in the columns of the bitterly anti-Russian London Times, are generally scoffed at. The theory that the loan has been delayed owing to the demands of French financiers for better terms is the view held at the Japanese legation, where your correspondent was informed that no belief is entertained that Russia will have the slightest difficulty in securing what money she needs at the present time.

London, March 16.—A news agency dispatch states that the details of the Russian loan have been settled. The loan will bear 5 per cent. interest, and will be redeemable in eight years. The financiers who have engineered the floating of the loan, are to receive large commissions.

The Italian Ministry.

Rome, March 16.—Signor Fortis has failed in his attempts to form a ministry. King Victor Emanuel has sent for Signor Tittoni who was minister of Foreign Affairs in Signor Giolitti's cabinet, and has signed a decree appointing Tittoni president of the Council. He has also decreed the convocation of parliament. Later in the day, the king issued another decree which reconstitutes the former ministry in entirety, with Signor Tittoni as premier ad interim. A vote of parliament endorsing the ministry will be sought March 21.

Wedding.

London, March 16.—The marriage of Signor William Marconi and the Hon Beatrice O'Brien, sister of Lord Inchiquin, took place today at St. Georges, in Hanover Square, before a great congregation which included many prominent people. The bride's presents are valued at $100,000. After a brief honeymoon in England Signor Marconi and his bride will sail for New York on March 25.

Mrs. Stanford's Death.

San Francisco, March 16.—Captain Burnett, of the Detective Bureau, announces that the police have reached the conclusion that there was no connection between the death of Mrs. Leland Stanford and her drinking of poisoned mineral water. Captain Burnett says he believes the mineral water was poisoned, but also believes that Mrs. Stanford's death in Honolulu resulted from natural causes.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 16.—Union Pacific was full of selling orders at the opening and brokers offered the stock down in large lots. Commission houses and room traders sold nearly all the active issues because of timidity or a bearish feeling, based on the flurry in money yesterday, which they expected might be repeated today. Large handlers of money said calling of loans yesterday was necessitated by the final withdrawals of deposits by the government and that the hard tone of the market will quickly disappear. The reaction, which set in shortly after the opening, ran well into the second hour as regards the general list. The declines were not extensive, and only in special issues were prices carried below last night's close. In the second hour the general tendency was toward improvement.

Famous Clown is Dead.

Practically penniless, with only his devoted wife to watch and mourn, Mons Niblo, famous circus clown and pantomimist, died in Denver yesterday, after suffering for months from tuberculosis. He went there in December a physical wreck and never had been able since to leave his bed. Niblo was 53 years of age, and for 35 years had performed before the public. He was the creator of the part of "Humpty Dumpy" in the play of that name.

Letter to Julian Knight,

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: Let's have a little private talk by ourselves on business; nobody else, please, read.

You want to know how to do a cheap job of painting, and have it look good. Here it is: The cheapest thing there is in the way of a good-looking job—say nothing about its being good—is Devoe; the regular thing is Devoe.

The reason is: Devoe goes further than anything else. Lead-and-oil is good-looking; don't go so far and costs more. The other paints are more or less short in one way or another; don't go so far and costs more than Devoe.

Devoe costs least of all; you don't mind its lasting longer, do you? We can't help it; a paint that goes further lasts longer; we can't help it. Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & CO

DIED.

At her home, on south Patrick street, on Thursday morning, March 16th, at 11:20 o'clock, Miss CATHERINE GRILLBORTZER, in the 60th year of her age.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

"BUSTS UP" NOW.

Ladies with that Carteresque figure, take warning! You are no longer de rigueur!

If you want to have the latest thing in spring styles as regards the form divine, elevate your bust.

At least, that is what Miss Elizabeth A. C. White, president of the Dressmakers' Protective Association, is telling the hordes of dressmakers who throng Masonic Temple in New York and drink in the words of the high priestess of dress and "figger" making.

The Masonic Temple has been the scene of many weird mysteries, but as the lean lady from Portland, Mich., said: "This here thing of meddlin' with the human figger beats anything I've seen."

Miss White, of the many initials, held in thrall gasping dressmakers from all corners of the United States as she ruthlesaly tore down the last year's standards of the female figure and explained that the past season's style of anatomy was decidely "de trop." (Miss White has just returned from Paris.)

"I never heard of such nerve," complained a portly seamstress from Fairfield, Iowa. (She is called a modiste on her native heath.)

"Why, last year we were all told that the only way to be swell and stylish, healthy and good form was to have a low bust. Then, the minute we get here we are informed that the busts must go up. We're told that high corsets are the proper caper—just after all of my customers have bought new ones. I never will dare go home and tell 'em they've get to change their shape."

Figures made while you wait is the watchword, and last night there was a corset demonstration on living models that made some of the members screech out in sympathy while the prodding and tugging was going on.

"The difference in the figure," said Miss White, "is in disposing of the diaphragm. Last year I made allowances to give it plenty of room; this year I say, remove all the surplus fat about it. The figure must change it you want to be proper."

Incidentally Miss White has lost 18 pounds in the last three weeks, and she says everybody can do the same thing by going after the new "figger" and wearing the new corset.

Furthermore, you can gain an inch in height. All the fat women and all the "runts" sat up and took notes.

"Lie on your stomach with a pillow under your chin, keeping the bed up; stretch your body, touch the foot of the bed with your toes, and you'll have fine results."

The startling announcements about the "change of front" were greeted with many protests.

"There is really no use of anything," said the leading modiste of Mount Pleasant, Mo. "Why, my folks won't stand for real hefty changes in styles once a year. What will they say when I go home and tell them their figgers are all wrong? They won't believe me—they won't. And how I have worked to get them broken into those drooping-front corsets."

Miss White gave some strong advice on eating properly as a means to acquire the new figure and lose the double chin.

"Don't drink with your meals. Eat plenty of boiled and stewed foods and never eat fruit first," she said.

There never was a busier lot of women gathered together than the dressmakers who were attending the convention. Nearly every one of them is from out of town, and what Miss White says goes, though there was more than one grumble about this "high faluting New York nerve of tryin' to make a new style figure."

President Names Mr. P. V. De Graw.

The President yesterday sent to the Senate the nomination of Mr. P. V. De Graw, of Washington, to be fourth assistant postmaster general.

Mr. De Graw is native of New Jersey but has spent most of his life in New York, Philadephia and Washington. He has had great experience in newspaper work, in the telegraph business, as a manager of large corporate interests, and recently as the eastern representative of the publicity department of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. As a young man, Mr. De Graw was a telegraph operator, and as such he held the distinction of being one of the most rapid Morse senders of his time. He began newspaper work with the old New York Associated Press, under the direction of the late Laurence Gobright in Washington, and much of his time since has been spent in the direction of the business of press associations and also as correspondent for leading western newspapers. He attained the first rank in his profession and was at one time president of the Gridiron Club, of which he is still a member.

Postmaster General Cortelyou said today that he had been largely influenced in selecting Mr. De Graw for this important post by his extensive acquaintance with public men and his knowledge of public business methods.

Police Commissioners.

The Board of Police Commissioners was in session about an hour and a quarter last night. The proceedings were mostly of a routine nature. Mayor Paff presided and all the commissioners were present.

After the secretary had read the proceedings of the last meeting, the reports of Chief Webster for January and February were read. The circumstances in connection with the suspension of Officers Nicholson, Knight and Ferguson during the past two months were given.

The Mayor's action in each case was affirmed by the commissioners.

Mr. Graham called attention to the fact that at a meeting held during the latter part of last year it was agreed by the members of the board that in future when men were convicted of violation of certain rules the penalty (dismissal) would follow.

Mayor Paff said Officer Ferguson had drunk bitters in a certain saloon and he had proved to the satisfaction of the Mayor that he had been indisposed for several days. He, therefore, did not merit dismissal.

Mr. Graham said he had no desire to be hard upon any officer, but should the board continue to show leniency after going on record as expressing a determition to exact the penalty in certain cases of violation of rules, all sorts of excuses would be urged in extenuation of such offenses on the part of officers.

Mr. Fisher said the members of the force should be summoned before the board when the proper admonition could be given. The board could then unanimously resolve to carry out the rules in letter and spirit. Let the men understand that their relations with the board are of a business nature, and the penalty that will inevitably follow any violation of agreement.

Mr. Graham called attention to the omission in the present book of rules of a section providing that when an alarm of fire is sounded the officers on the beats wherein the engine houses are located shall repair thither, ring the bells and close the houses.

Mayor Paff said he had recently issued an order embodying this rule, but would be glad to have the board incorporate it into the rules.

The rule was adopted.

Mr. Lawler said the board would be called upon to elect successors to Officers James Howson and Samuel Ticer at the next meeting, as the services of these men would be dispensed with after May 1.

An interchange of opinion as to age qualification followed. It was finally agreed that applicants must be electors and between the ages of 21 and 45. Considerable time was also spent in a discussion concerning the age at which an officer should be retired, it being generally admitted that he has outlived his day of usefulness when he reaches 65.

A resolution, offered by Mr. Fisher, providing that aspirants for positions on the force must send in their applications in their own handwriting and be between the ages of 21 and 45, was adopted.

An interchange of opinion concerning alterations and improvements at the station house followed. All agreed that such were sorely needed, and much regret was expressed at the action of Council in refusing to make the necessary appropriation.

The Mayor was convinced that he could bring the force up to a higher standard should Council conclude to make the improvements asked for. Mr. Paff said the City Engineer had told him the proposed work would not cost over $600. His honor referred to the fact that two pistols had been stolen from the toilet room of the station house recently.

Mr. Lawler said there should be an electric apparatus connecting the station house with the bell in the City Hall steeple, and he explained its utility in the time of fire.

Mayor Paff said the firemen of the city had received more attention from Council than the policemen. The former had many conveniences in the way of bath rooms, &c., which were denied policemen. He did not want to be understood as being averse to the firemen being provided for. They were faithful and trustworthy—and the city should appreciate their services.

The board subsequently adjourned.

River Notes.

The United States steamboat inspectors have inspected the steamer Norfolk, of the Washington and Norfolk line. The examination was a very thorough one, and all the life-saving and fire extinguishing apparatus were tested and found to be in excellent working order. The life preservers aboard the steamer were also gone over, and all made of cork or ground cork were thrown out and will be replaced with new ones that come up to the department's requirements. The steamer was found to be in a most satisfactory condition.

The Coming Fishery.

A few people were at Fishtown today preparing the premises for the fishery. The houses were being opened and aired and other arrangements were in progress for the accommodation of the trade. Those interested in Fishtown are impatient at the delay in the work of dredging the dock. The steam dredge is on hand together with a scow, and all things are ready for the deepening of the dock, but operations on this line cannot be commenced until the city makes a survey of the area in which the dredge is to be operated.

The receipts of fish in this city are increasing, but most of them are from the southern rivers, the water being too cold for the advent of migratory fish into the Potomac, although a few shad are reported in the bay. Numbers of yellow perch and some black bass and catfish are occasionally caught hereabout. Several dozen herring, netted at Colonial Beach, were sent up the river yesterday.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

Was Too Ardent.

Louis Romano, an Italian barber, was found late Tuesday night by a policeman standing in front of his house in New York, shivering in a night robe. He told the policeman that his wife had poured a pitcher of cold water on him. The wife's arrest followed.

Mrs. Romano is an American, a college graduate and was formerly an actress. About a year ago she fell in love with Romano and was married.

"My husband runs up from the shop during business hours to kiss me. He kisses me in the morning, through the day and through the night. He won't let me sleep. He wants to be kissing me every second.

"Last night he pestered me so that I could stand it no longer and I got up. He tried to drag me back, but I resisted and then threw water over him to cool him off. I love him yet, but one can't love without sleeping some time and I'll give up everything and leave him, though I love him dearly."

The magistrate commended the woman's resolve and released her.

Commemorating Roosevelt's Inauguration.

A service commemorative of the inauguration of President Roosevelt was held at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Church, on the Avenue Hoche, Paris. The ceremony assumed a distinctly official character, Foreign Minister Delcasse being represented by M. Delvincour, under chief of his Cabinet. The others present included Ambassador Porter and the staff of the American Embassy; Sir Francis Bertie, the British ambassador; Admiral Sir Charles Fane, of the British navy, and representatives of the Japanese and several other legations. The front of the church was decorated with the American and French flags. The Abbe McMullan preached the sermon, eulogizing President Roosevelt. The ceremony was a rather marked departure from the usual conservatism of French churches.

Fatal Duel.

Before the fatal bullet was fired, Kale shot Carpenter, who is in an unconscious condition and expected to die. Carpenter, the owner of the Hardin Cotton Mill, and is about twenty-one years of age. The two men quarreled over the employment of mill help, and when they met in the public road near Hardin a fight ensued. Both men were well-known citizens of Gaston county. A CARD.

Alexandria, Va., March 16, 1905.

Though I expect to be a candidate for the office of Postmaster of this city, I shall not circulate throughout the city petitions requesting signatures thereto.

I realize that citizens generally, especially business men (for business reasons), desire to be relieved of the importuning to which such methods subject them. I do not wish, however, to be understood as being in any way unappreciative of the endorsements of my fellow citizens or unmindful of the potency of same, and shall greatly appreciate such kindly interest and efforts as may be made in my behalf. Respectfully,

JAMES E. JOHNSTON.

[COMMUNICATED.

The First Mothers' Congress.

The National Congress of Mothers now in session in Washington calls to mind the first meeting of this now large organization. It was during the closing days of Mr. Cleveland's second administration that the mothers first met in the banquet room of the Arlington Hotel, the meeting having been previously announced in the press. It was not expected that a larger number than could therein be accommodated would be in attendance, but when the originator of the movement, Mrs. Theodore W. Birney, arose to make the opening address, the room was literally packed, many not being able to get inside at all.

After a short session, it was decided to adjourn and reassemble in the afternoon at the First Baptist Church, corner of 16th and O streets, where all the following meetings were held. Before adjourning, however, a note from Mrs. Cleveland was read in reply to a request that she receive the visiting delegates, in which she, with that graciousness which so characterized her, invited not only the delegates, but all the mothers, after which all roads led to the White House, where every mother was presented by Mrs. Birney. The meetings which followed for several days were full of interest and largely attended, which fact would seem to refute the argument of those who believe that women of the present day are less wedded to home interests than our grandmothers were.

Many interesting papers were read bearing upon the subject in hand in all its different phases.

Perhaps one of the brightest women who addressed this congress was Mrs. Helen M. Gardiner of—need I say it?—Boston. Her paper was a scholarly one, dealing with the theory that the mother should be properly equipped for her duties by having the best possible educational advantages. "The old time idea," said she, "was something like this:" A father having several daughters would say:

"Mary, here, is apt and bright—we'll give her a good education. She will make a fine teacher, while Jane, she is naturally slow and somewhat dull; she'll make a good mother." "Now," said Mrs. Gardiner, "if Jane is going to be the mother of future men and women, Jane is the one who should have the advantages."

Robert Ingersoll in his lecture upon Shakespeare once declared, that all great men have had great mothers, adding, that while comparatively little is known of Shakespeare's antecedents, it was safe to assume that his mother was above the ordinary to have produced such a genius. Napoleon, upon one occasion, was asked by the famous Madame de Stael whom he considered the greatest woman.

His reply was, "She, madame," who has had the greatest number of children." Thus it will be seen that Napoleon's ideas of race suicide antedate Mr. Roosevelt's by little more than a century.

Tomorrow, Friday, Is REMNANT DAY.

On Friday all broken assortments, odd lots, short lengths, remnants from whatsoever cause, are offered at prices very much below their intrinsic value. Remnants are the natural consequence of healthy trade, and we take this method of clearance. The saving to be effected is very material, and in most instances the items are perfect. Every department throughout the store offers items of interest to careful buyers, and the collection offered for tomorrow is particularly interesting.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY

THE PRETTY THINGS IN

Silver and Glass

That serve to make home especially attractive are found in interesting variety here. A silver candelabra in the midst of bright cut glass adds a touch of refinement to a dinner scene. Much of the new silver and glass we are showing expresses rare taste and skill on the craftsman's part. Let us show you the Dolly Madison pattern in silver and the new cut glass flower vases.

The Toad.

The wonderful insect killing capacity of the toad is known in a general way to the enlightened few, says Country Life In America. An imported colony of toads may be the salvation of a flower garden. Many gardeners give their children a cent apiece for every cutworm destroyed. From May 1 to Aug. 1 a toad may destroy 2,160 cutworms, which it would cost $21.60 to destroy by hand. English gardeners are said to pay as much as $25 a hundred for toads for colonizing purposes.

Thrifty Switzerland.

"The people of Switzerland are very grasping in their treatment of visitors," says a man who has made a tour of that country. "If the hotel keeper doesn't get all his money the guide takes what is left, and if there should happen to be a dollar or so left after they get through the little boys fix up an artificial waterfall by putting a board across a stream and when tourists happen along pull it away with a string and expect the dollar in payment."—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Possibly.

Jack—I don't quite comprehend Miss Smith. Tom—In what respect? Jack—Well, we were children together, and here now I'm thirty-two, and she's only twenty-two. Tom—You've lived faster than she has. Jack—Thanks, old fellow. I guess that explains it.

Gentle Pity.

Mildred—He came to you with his broken heart after Gussie had rejected him, and you let him console himself by making love to you? Millicent—Why not? I considered that I was acting as first aid to the injured.—Chicago Tribune.

The Joy of Escape.

Pessimist—You haven't had all that you wanted in life, have you? Optimist—No; but I haven't had all that I didn't want either.—Brooklyn Life.

Rashness is the faithful but unhappy parent of misfortune.—Fuller.

Looking Down Into Four States.

From Mount Genevieve, a peak in Gilpin county, Colo., a person can see into four states and one territory. On a clear day the observer can discern the Uintah mountains of eastern Utah, the Medicine Bow range of Wyoming, the tips of the Rockies in New Mexico and the principal peaks of Colorado. The plains stretching to the east are plainly visible clear into Nebraska.

Art and Nature.

Overheard during the private theatricals: She—How well your wife plays Lady Geraldine, Mr. Jones! I think the way she puts on that awful affected tone is just splendid. How does she manage it? Mr. Jones (with embarrassment)—Er—she doesn't. That's her natural voice.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest. It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.
